SUBJECT: Robert Maheu - Foreign Head of State

1. In connection with the official State visit of [redacted] to a foreign Head of State in 1959, the Office of Security was requested to render special support during the Los Angeles and New York phases of the tour. According to [redacted] personnel, [redacted] the foreign official was especially desirous of female companionship during his Los Angeles visit and it was requested that appropriate arrangements be made through a controlled source of the Office in order to assure a satisfied visit.

2. On 3 April 1959 Mr. Robert Maheu, a cleared Office of Security contact, was asked to arrange a party for the foreign official at Los Angeles, California. This was done by Mr. Nathan Chouvaloff, Grosvenor Bautzer. Mr. Bautzer is a prominent Los Angeles attorney and Hollywood figure previously granted a covert security approval for use by FE Division, by prearrangement, during the course of this party the foreign official was introduced to [redacted] a famous screen and stage actress. For the duration of the foreign official's stay in Los Angeles, 3 through 7 April 1959, he and the actress became intimate friends. It was indicated by a CIA employee who was integrated into the State party, that the foreign official desired to continue his friendship with the actress and that he wished to meet with her during his stay in New York City, 10 through 19 April 1959.

3. On 13 April 1959 arrangements were made to rent the home of [redacted] an Office of Security source, at Long Beach, Long Island, for the period 14 through 13 April 1959. The home was to be used as a confidential meeting place for the actress and the foreign official. At the same time the actress was registered at the Hotel Barclay, 111 East 43rd Street, New York City, under an assumed name.

The publicity touching on the relationship had become more pointed since some publicity mention had been made of the Jewish background of the actress. On 14 April 1959 a CIA employee and the actress were transported to the home on Long Island which was taken over as the meeting place for the foreign official and the actress. Later, the same day, by pre-arrangement, two Department of State Security Agents, a New York City police lieutenant and a hired chauffeur arrived with the foreign official. The actress remained at the site through 18 April 1959 and the foreign official and his party visited each evening and remained for about four to five hours.

4. During the stay at the Long Beach site, the actress discussed the publicity in the case at some length with the Security representatives. She speculated about the possible sources of certain personal information that she felt had been leaked to the press. Additionally she spoke of her deep feelings for the foreign official & commented on how Gregson Baumer initially sought her out to serve as a party companion for the foreign official. At the time she said she was unclear as to just what part Mr. Baumer wanted her to play. In attempting to clarify his case Mr. Baumer said, "I am employed by the CIA. We want you to go to bed with him." The actress said she rejected the proposal but finally went to the party. She became quite taken with the foreign official and found him to be most charming.

5. All personal contacts by Security representatives in this case were under alias [redacted] and [redacted] State Department affiliation. There is no record or indication in any of the files in this case that involves Robert Mahou by name or reference. It is believed that Mr. Mahou was never introduced to the actress, and as far as can be determined Baumer "fronted" for all arrangements. Office of Security investigation conducted variously from 25 May through 17 September 1959 of [redacted] reflected no substantive derogatory information regarding AGC.
